NEW BUSINESS

- The floor was opened for nominations for president. Names of Gary Fritz and Ron Hickman were offered. Both respectfully declined. Mike Vogler's name came to the floor, seconded, accepted and approved by unanimous consent.
- Ron Hickman was asked if he would continue as vice president. He agreed and received unanimous approval by membership.
- Jody Denning's and Craig Vogler's names were offered for the office of secretary/treasurer. Both declined.
- Though not a club member for a year as written in the bylaws, it was agreed by unanimous consent to waive the requirement to allow Calvin Mitcham to accept the position of secretary/treasurer provisionally.
- He may leave the position if he feels unable to satisfy the demands of the position.
- Membership was reminded that membership dues will be coming due as the new year begins.
- Meeting venues were discussed. It was decided that Headquarters will host the January PVARC meeting. In the meantime, Ron Hickman and Mark Hunefeld will contact the management of the Ferdinand American Legion and Phil Smith will talk with the Jasper Legion as later meeting venue options.
